Love's Labour's Lost Wednesday 22nd August at 7pm. The King of Navarre and his lords swear off food, women, and sleep in order to study for three years. No sooner have they made their oath when the Princess of France arrives on business, with her ladies-in-waiting. How will the King and his Lords resolve hold up? This wonderful Shakespeare comedy is filled with Folksy Theatre's touch of live music, audience interaction and downright silliness.

Pre book price is; Adult £13.50, Concession £10, Child £8 and family ticket £38. Collect from The Centre or on line at <http://www.folksytheatre.co.uk> On the Gate; Adult £15, Concession £12 and child £10. Family tickets are not available on the day.

The Princess & The Giant Tuesday 28th August at 6pm with Folksy Theatre.

Princess Sophie is fed up. She's EXHAUSTED and it's all because the grumpy old giant can't sleep – his stomps and stamps keep everyone awake ALL night. But Princess Sophie is a resourceful sort of girl and, as she reads her favourite book of fairy tales, she wonders if she might just have the answer. Filled with music, puppetry and wonderful characters, this family show is one not to be missed! Based on the Children's book by Caryl Hart, illustrated by Sarah Warburton.

Pre book price is; Adult £13.50, Concession £10, Child £8 and family ticket £38. On the Gate; Adult £15, Concession £12 and child £10. Family tickets are not available on the day. Collect from The Centre or online at <http://www.folksytheatre.co.uk>
